25X1

1. Individuals drawing pensions from the State have been summoned to the Pension Commission and informed that they must seek employment if they are under sixty years of age. They were informed that pensions would henceforth be paid only to persons over sixty.
2. Pensioners who indicated that they desired to continue drawing their pension if their new job would pay less than the pension were informed that, unless they were sixty years of age, they had no choice but to obtain what employment they could find.
